Sunday, December 23

9:15 AM Sunday Forum

10:30 AM Worship Whose Are We? Rev Paul Beckel

Inspired today by a child dedication, and vocal solos by Amy Van Auken and Su Livingston, we'll consider how, as embodied consciousness, our very existence is like that of the infinite born into earthly form.

11:30 AM Coffee Hour in the Social Hall- with Christmas Breads

Social and spiritual sustenance for BUF's Men at 12:15 in Conference

Our regular semi-monthly (or bi-weekly, depending on how you're counting) meeting will occur this coming Sunday, in the BUF conference room, at the regular time of 12:15 to about 1:30pm. As usual:

Nursing Home Caroling After Sunday Service on Dec 23rd

Bring your good cheer and your enthusiastic voices next Sunday the 23rd after the service. We will go to:

Ursula Zvilna's home at 4935 Lasalle. It is out Lakeway, just as it turns around the lake, right on Coronado, then left on Lasalle. There is parking on the street and limited parking in front of the home, on the left. Please leave this for people with mobility issues. Andrew Z. will be there as will Rachel Smith Manrique. Please invite other friends of Ursula's to join us there. We plan to be there around 12:30.

Then we will go to visit Bertie and Carolyn out in Cordata. The home has just changed its name. It is now Cordata Court, 4415 Columbine Drive. It is possible that Carolyn will be moving back east with her family. Bertie is now in memory care and her family is here.

We are supposed to be there at 2.

Things to consider:

Bring a snack to eat before you get to Ursula's.

If you enjoy baking and would like to bake goodies to share there, please let me know.

If you are crafty and would like to make a little poise of some sort of gift, get in touch with me so we can coordinate. I have a holly tree we could use. Would be nice to have pine cones, cedar, ????

We can carpool from the church or if you can only come to one, you may want to take your own car.

Please let me know if you are interested, and if so, in which parts.

Sunday, December 30

9:15 AM Sunday Forum

10:30 AM Worship Priorities Rev Paul Beckel Some native porters were conscripted to carry baggage for explorers thru a jungle. After traveling long and hard day after day the porters stopped. They did not seem begrudging. They were not being obstinate but they would not proceed. The explorers were dumbfounded, but finally received an interpretation: "The porters say that they have come so far so fast that they must stop to wait for their souls to catch up with them." Taking this pause before bounding into the year ahead, let's think about how we might we strip away the excess, in order to reveal the whole.
